

TABLE 6: Disaggregated inclusive analysis

| Comparison groups                                       | Main differences (examples)  |
|--|---|
| Women versus men  | Women prioritize health risks, while men prioritize weather-related risks, etc.                                       |
| Differently abled versus abled                          | Only 7 per cent of those with disabilities, but 52 per cent of the general population, have access to ...             |
| Livelihood differences:fisherpeople versus farmers | Most fisherpeople's households have roofs made of natural materials, while most farmers' households have steel roofs. |
| Youth versus elderly                                    | Etc.  |
| Lowland versus highland                                 | Etc.  |